Please Join Us for the Following Events This Week:

In Our Gallery...Extended to March 6th

“Another Kind of Witness” by Bernard F. Stehle

Marking the 20th anniversary of Another Kind of Witness (Philadelphia: Jewish Publication Society, 1988), a book of photographs and text in the form of a letter to his children, Associate Professor of English Bernard F. Stehle displays a number of portraits from the book—individuals he met during the five-day International Gathering of Jewish Holocaust Survivors that met in Philadelphia in May of 1985. Vignettes accompanying the photos, gathered in most instances from phone conversations with the survivors months after the event, exhibit in each case a verbal portrait of survival.

Monday, March 2

12:30 to 1:25     The Making of a Drug Gang: Senseless Violence and Making Sense of Murder
In his Law and Society Week presentation (9:05 to 10 am in Room S2-3), Waverly Duck will discuss his research on this topic. Join him from 12:30 to 1:25 for lunch and an informal continuation of his discussion about this vital research. If you can attend for lunch, please RSVP to Kathy Smith.
