Thursday, April 2

3:30 to 5:00      Panel Discussion from the series *Pilgrimages in, around, and about Asia
Join panelists Fay Beauchamp, Diane Freedman, Dave Prejsnar, and Faith Watson for a discussion on how pilgrimages illustrate a variety of aspects of Asian culture and how to integrate Asia into the classroom for multiple disciplines.
Contact Person: Dave Prejsnar at dprejsnar@ccp.edu.

Friday, April 3

1:00 to 2:00      Learning Style Preferences and Neurological Brain Models for Computer-Mediated Communication (CMC)
Research suggests that students who take college courses often have learning style preferences that are different from the teaching styles of their faculty, which creates a learning and performance challenge to students and faculty in higher education. The session will focus on how to interpret learning style preferences and neurological brain models to improve teaching practices.
